

Remote working: How to work and manage teams (Webinar)

Working from home means still working and sometimes it is even more challenging than working from office. This training will support Leaders on managing remote employee and answer frequently asked questions:

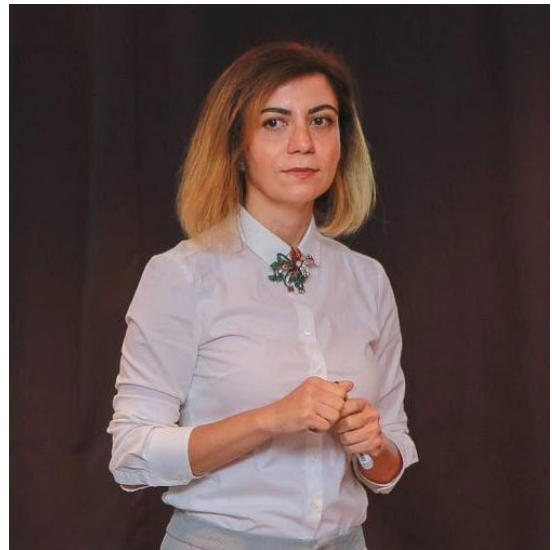

How to prepare employees to work remotely
How to keep employees engaged and performing high
How to manage situations when employees are lack of access to information
Problems of social isolation and etc.

Key Modules

- New way of working remotely
 - Challenges we usually face
 - Working environment (table, distractions, technologies, etc.)
 - Planning of the day and result-orientation
 - Managerial skills (delegation, tasks distribution, decision making, virtual feedback, etc.)
 - Virtual meetings
 - Helping tips (dress code, “signs”, etc)
 - New skills you will get out of this experience
 - One thing I will immediately apply
-

EXPERT TRAINER - Lala Abdurahmanova

having 20+ years of working experience is a professional trainer, facilitator, consultant and a coach, who has been providing training, consulting and coaching services to a wide range of businesses. She has an expertise in developing and delivering training programs, including case-studies, business role-plays and simulations. Mrs. Abdurahmanova’s professional portfolio is focused on supporting companies to establish their strategic and tactical plans, as well as to develop their human capital through enhancing knowledge and skills of the personnel. She also provides facilitation of workshops and strategic meetings in various organizations, and develops companies’ internal training resources. One of her focus audience is the management team of the companies. Mrs. Abdurahmanova provides services to international and local businesses and government bodies in Azerbaijan, Georgia, Uzbekistan and other CIS countries, and her more than 10 years’ experience in management contributes to high quality of her work. She led the Organizational Development and Change Management Division in the international telecommunication company that has a great impact to her consultancy work. She has graduated from International Coach Academy (USA).

PERSONAL INFORMATION ON PARTICIPANTS

First Name

Last Name

Company

Job Title

Country

E-mail address

Contact Number

Name to appear on Certificate

Price per program is 375 AZN (up to 20 participants)

Duration of training is 75 minutes

